Family Literacy/Literacy Recommended Reading

Issue Date: February 1, 2005 Revised: February 2, 2006
Source: Helen O'Leary, Even Start State Coordinator
Key Words: Even Start Family Literacy
Summary: This document lists recommended reading material for family literacy programs. Website and ordering information is also provided.

From the National Research Council (National Academy Press)

- Preventing Reading Difficulties (1998) ISBN 0-309-06418-X
  1-800-624-6242 or http://www.nap.edu (Ordering Information)
- Starting Out Right (1999) ISBN 0-309-06410-4
  1-800-624-6242 or http://www.nap.edu (Ordering Information)

- Eager to Learn (2002) ISBN 0-309-06836-3
  1-888-624-8422 or http://www.nap.edu (Ordering Information)
- Neurons to Neighborhoods (2000) ISBN 0-309-06988-2
  1-800-624-6242 or http://www.nap.edu (Ordering Information)

Free from USDOE

- Put Reading First (2001)
  E-mail edpuborders@aspensys.com or 1-800-228-8813
  Parent Companion Booklet: E-mail edpuborders@edpubs.org
- Teaching Our Youngest: A Guide for Preschool Teachers and Child Care and Family Providers (2002)
  E-mail edpubs@inet.ed.gov or 1-877-433-7827
- Guide to Improving Parenting Education in Even Start (2000)
  E-mail edpubs@inet.ed.gov or 1-877-433-7827

Order from the National Center for Family Literacy

- Pathways: A Primer for Family Literacy Program Design and Development (2000), Rebecca King and Jennifer McMaster,
  ISBN 1-884458-06-8
  Order from website: http://www.famlit.org (Products tab)

Order from publisher

- Beginning Literacy with Language, David Dickinson & Patton Tabors, 2001, Paul H. Brookes Publishing Co., ISBN 1-55766-479-X

Information about Scientifically Based Reading Research (SBRR) from the National Reading Panel through the National Institute for Literacy (NIFL) http://www.nifl.gov (Partnership for Reading icon) and at http://www.nationalreadingpanel.org